

What's Hot, What's Happenin', Nov. 22-28

Written by Fran Severn
Thursday, 04 November 2010 11:59 -

November 22-28

Assateague Island Waterfowl Week. Chincoteague Island Wildfowl Refuge. Presentations, tours, workshops. Areas of the refuge usually closed are open to birdwatchers and photographers during the height of the annual southern avian migration. www.chincoteaguechamber.com

November 25

Turkey Trot, Pemberton Park, Salisbury, MD. Pre-burn Thanksgiving feast calories with a 5K job, run, trot, or walk through Pemberton Park's woodlands and fields. Prize for best Thanksgiving costume. Healthy snacks but also apple pie and ice cream. Trot starts at 9 a.m. $25 registration. 410-860-2447.

November 26

Deborah Waterfowl Show & Auction, Chincoteague. Over 100 carvers and artists exhibiting and selling their works. $3 admission, 1 p.m. www.chincoteaguechamber.com

What's Hot, What's Happenin', Nov. 22-28

Written by Fran Severn

Thursday, 04 November 2010 11:59 -

November 26-27

16th Annual Southeastern Delaware Artists' Studio Tour. Free, self-guided tour of some of Delaware's most talented artists and artisans. 10-4. Free map. www.artstudiotour.com

November 26-28

8th Annual Artisans Guild Open Studio and Vineyard Tour, Eastern Shore of Virginia. Various locations Studios, galleries, workshops, vineyards and wineries will be open from 10 am to 5pm, Fri-Sat-Sun. Download map at <http://www.esartisansguild.org>